

Buddhism

The spelling is 'Buddhism'.

Remember, there is a 'hi' in 'Buddhism'.

Siddhartha Gautama was the person who started the religion.

He is now often called the 'Buddha'.

A wheel with eight spokes is a Buddhist symbol.

The main holy book is the Three Baskets (or Tripitaka)

The Buddhist holy building is called a temple.

This photo is of the Wimbledon temple.

There are eight main rules or guidelines.

They are called the Noble Eightfold Path.

Bodhi Gaya, in India, is an important place.

The Buddha became enlightened there.

Steve Jobs, who invented the iPhone, was a Buddhist.

Buddhists often meditate.

An important festival is Wesak.

It's also called Buddha Day.

The word 'Buddha' means 'enlightened one'.

Enlightenment is peace and inner wisdom.