

Judaism

The religion of Jews is called Judaism.

Jews often call Abraham 'Father' because he started the religion.

The Star of David, or Magen David, is a main symbol.

The Torah scrolls are the holy book.

Jews worship in a synagogue, or shul.

The photo is of Bromley synagogue.

Many Jews worship in God. They call God 'Adonai' (Lord) or 'Hashem' (The Name').

The most important rules are the Ten Commandments (Ten Mitzvot).

The Western Wall in Jerusalem, Israel, is the most important site. It is known as the Wailing Wall.

Anne Frank was murdered in the Holocaust because she was Jewish.

The Holocaust was when the Nazis murdered millions of Jews in World War II. Jews call the Holocaust the 'Shoah', which means 'the Catastrophe'.

Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement, is the most important holy day.

The Sabbath, or Shabbat, is the weekly day of rest.