Mr Stone says:

Religion and animals

Humans and animals

How humans use animals

e.g. hunt for food, sport, & money

Fill in the table

Stick the table into your book

How do humans use animals?

Use	Meaning
1. Pets	an animal which is kept in the home as a _____
2. Guide dogs	dogs specially trained to help a _____ person travel around
3. Animal testing	the use of living animals in _____
4. Factory farming	farming where _____ of animals are kept in a small _____ area, to produce food _____
5. Free-range	farm animals that are allowed to _____ around outside and are not kept in _____
6. Zoos	an area where _____ animals are kept so people can _____ at them
7. Hunting	to chase and try to catch and kill an animal for _____, _____ or _____
8. Bull fighting	a _____ sport, mainly in _____, where a person fights and sometimes kills a bull
9. Fur	hair-covered _____ of animals, removed from their _____
10. Ivory trade	hard _____ substance that forms the tusks of animals such as _____
11. Genetic modification	changing the _____ of the genes of a living thing, to make it more _____ to humans
12. Animal cloning	to create an exact _____ of an animal
13. Animal slaughter	the killing of animals for _____
14. Meat	the _____ of an animal when it is used for food

- a lot
- blind
- bodies
- cages
- cheaply
- companion
- copy
- cutting
- elephants
- enclosed
- experiments
- flesh
- food
- look
- meat
- move
- profit
- public
- skin
- Spain
- sport
- structure
- useful
- wild
- yellowish-white

Which three are the most reasonable? Why?

e.g. 'Hunting because it means that foxes can no longer kill helpless little chickens.'

Which three are the most unreasonable? Why?

e.g. 'Hunting for sport because it is wrong to cause pain for animals simply as a game'
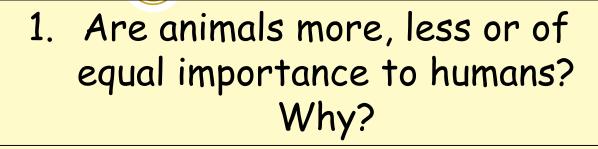

How are humans animals the same?

How are they different?

The same	Different

The same	Different
Both need to eat	Humans can make decisions based on reasons. Animals act by instinct.
Both need sleep	Humans can read and write and understand ideas e.g. maths
Both reproduce	Animals are more focused on survival rather than the quality of life.
Both defend themselves	Humans can create music, art, literature and technology.
Many physical characteristics e.g. eyes ears/ nose etc	Humans have beliefs animals do not follow religion.

How should we treat animals?

1. Are animals more, less or of equal importance to humans? Why?

2. So, how do you think we should treat animals? Explain.

3. Are some animals more important than others which means we can treat them differently? Justify your answer.

A child and a dog are trapped in a fire.

You can only save one of them.

Which will you save?

- 1. What is my initial reaction?

- 2. Who is affected?

- 3. What facts do I need to know?

- 4. What are the reasons for both sides?

Save child	Save dog

- 5. Which side is most convincing?

- 6. How do I feel about my final reaction?

A child and a dog are trapped in a fire.

You can only save one of them.

Which will you save?