

Six liberal thinkers: Overview

John Locke

- natural rights
- liberty
- individualism
- fiduciary power of government

John Stuart Mill

- criticism of hedonism
- freedom
- integrity
- self respect of the individual
- self regarding and other regarding actions

John Rawls

- concept of justice
- principles of justice

Thomas Hill Green

- self-development/role of the state
- negative and positive freedom

Mary Wollstonecraft

- equality and rights
- 'revolution controversy'
- criticisms of aristocracy
- republicanism

Betty Friedan

- equal rights
- civil rights
- feminist movements (USA)